

Mission Statement:

To become a web developer at an established company in the Midwest/South that makes the world a better place. I want to make my hobby my day job so I can enjoy the work I'm doing and be more creatively challenged at work. I can offer 4 years of experience in customer service, in addition to leveled-up web dev skills.